

24 HOUR COMICS

The 24 Hour Comic is a challenge put forth by Scott McCloud. A single cartoonist tries to create a complete 24 page comics story, normally months worth of work, in 24 straight hours. Hundreds of cartoonists have taken the challenge. The results are often amazing as the creator has no time to second-guess and self-censor.

What happens when cartoonists try to create 24 page comics in 24 straight hours?
